Aadhar Balika Grah (Home for Orphan & Destitute Daughters)

The children of today are the future of tomorrow. Every child, on provision of a conducive and an enabling environment, may blossom into an ever fragrant flower, to shine in all spheres of life. This reminds us of the onerous responsibility that we have to mould and shape their present conditions in the best possible way. The journey in the life cycle of a child involves the critical components of child survival, child development and child protection. Child survival entails their basic right of being born in a safe and non – discrimination environment and grows through the formative years of life in a healthy and dignified way. To help every child attain full growth as a decent human being and in shaping them as a responsible citizen, certain basic rights of child like proper and safe shelter, food, clothing, education, recreation, counseling, guidance and other referral services for children Aadhar Foundation has taken an initiative to establish a Shelter Home for Girls of 6-18 years.
